

Olivier Piazza

Olivier is an Executive Coach specialized in leadership development, team dynamics and change facilitation.

For the last seven years, he has dedicated himself to helping Executives, teams and organizations face new challenges by designing and implementing innovative coaching solutions. The philosophy guiding Olivier's work is that self-realization and company success are fully enabled where leadership is present and integrated.

Olivier currently teaches leadership, team dynamics and management at HEC Paris, Rouen Business School and Cergy Pontoise University, mainly to c-level executives, but also to middle managers or young post-graduate students. Olivier also serves as an editorial advisor to Dunod-InterEditions, a leading French publisher of management and coaching books.

Previously, Olivier held various positions as a sales rep, marketing manager, advertiser and general manager in the healthcare publishing sector. This journey led him to a deep understanding of different business settings, from multinationals to small French companies.

His education reflects his transdisciplinary mindset and background. He holds an Executive Coaching Master's Degree from Cergy Pontoise University, an Executive MBA from HEC Paris and is a graduate of the National College of Veterinary Medicine of Nantes.

Olivier works in French and English.
