

Corinne Cantin

Corinne provides organizations with practical, easy to implement solutions, which are fully adapted to nowadays new complexity. She works along with small and medium sized businesses, as well as large, international private and public companies :

- She coaches business leaders so that they can better guide, step back, clarify their vision and improve the way they interact with people,
- she assists Executive teams to help them creating a positive, trusting atmosphere, enabling to co-build the vision and the firm strategy, build on attitudes promoting cooperation, exemplarity and co-responsibility,
- she supports managers in the way they interact with their teams, motivate and support them,
- she assess the organizational side of large companies, using high-performing, recognized tools in order to measure and promote professional well-being as a strong performance lever.

Corinne holds a university degree in professional coaching and is a systemic organization consultant. She is a certified practitioner in NLP and uses different methods and tools from social / sociological science. She has 18 years of experience in business with strong management skills.

Corinne lives in Nantes and Paris, France, and works in French.